

proPERLA® Metal Facade Coating is a water-based coating for metal surfaces such as facades of industrial buildings. The treatment protects against erosion of the surface repels water and is very resistant to rain, frost, sun, etc.

proPERLA® Metal Facade Coating

Original protection for industrial facades.

High quality pigments for a new look proPERLA® is composed of carefully selected pigments. Thanks to its extreme adherence capacity it provides maximum protection to metal facades. transforms the appearance of dirty and unattractive metal facades in clean and aesthetic industrial buildings.

BEFORE

AFTER

The benefits of applying it

- ✓ The treatment repels water and is very resistant to rain, frost, sun, etc.

- ✓ Thanks to its extreme adherence capacity it provides maximum protection to metal facades.

- ✓ Transforms the appearance of dirty and unattractive metal facades in clean and aesthetic industrial buildings.

- ✓ Has been designed with microFORMULA® technology, which allows a penetration much faster and more complete reaction in a metal support.

- ✓ Restores the original protection of metal facades and it is more economic than replacement of metal panels.

